Frank Farrell Takes Two Races With Keator and Arklirta and Runs Second in Another With Champlain-Senator McCarren's Edna Jackson Scores.

James B. Brady's Oiseau, by Ornus-Kitty Gunn, for whom he paid $27,500 last fall, won the Spindrift Handicap, for three-year-olds, one mile and a furlong at Sheepshead olds, one mile and a furious, at Sneepshear Bay yesterday afternoon in rather easy style.
He picked up 124 pounds and, giving a pound to Sydney Paget's Cairngorm, he beat the latter home by a length and a half in 153 3-5. Cairngorm was the favorite at 7 to 5, while Oiseau, who opened on even terms with the Paget colt, went back to 8 to 5. O'Neill made all the running with Oiseau. On the far turn Martin made his run with Cairngorm, and for a moment things looked squally for the Brady colt, but when O'Neill shook him up he drew away and held his own to the end. Six lengths behind Cairngorm James R. Keene's Sinister, 20 to 1, with a strong pull in the weights, took third money.

Frank Farrell's colors were carried to the cont in two races by Keator and Arklirts, both heavily backed. Keator, a crack sprinter, who has been winning all his races recently, took the second event, a handicap for threeyear-olds and upward at six furlongs. Shaw had the mount, and the Charaxus three-yearold was beaten down to even money from 8 to 5. He broke in front with his usual bril-liant turn of speed, and after standing the others on their heads he won, pulled up, by a length and a half, in 1:13 3-5. Ancestor, 10 to 1, closed strongly and got the place from E. W. Jewett's Bedouin, 10 to 1, by a length.

Arklirta, a son of Arkle-Loyalirta, captured the fifth event, for maiden two-year-olds, five furlongs, Futurity course, in sensational style. Shaw also had this mount, and, opening 6 to 1, the colt was finally backed down to 2 to 1 favorite, with John E. Madden's Bellsnicker and R. T. Wilson, Jr's., Nostromo, the other choices. At the start Arklirta was off poorly, but Shaw made up the ground quickly, and finding an opening at the last furiong pole he shot the Farrell colt to the front and drove him home to victory by two lengths in 192 1-5. Sydney Paget's Watergrass, 8 to 1, ran second, a length before Bellsnicker, who beat James R. Keene's Lancastrian a head.
Farrell also ran second with Champlain in the slxth, race at a mile and a furlong on the grass, Peter Wimmer's Ocean Tide, 9 to 5 second choice, winning easily by two lengths in 153 4-5. Champlain, who went up in the betting, had no trouble in finishing four lengths in front of P. J. Dwyer's old sulker Major Daingerfield, who opened at odds on but went up to 8 to 5.
Senator McCarren's filly Edna Jackson, a 2 to 1 favorite, with John E. Madden's Bell-lengths in front of P. J. Dwyer's old shifer Major Daingerfield, who opened at odds on but went up to 8 to 5.

Senator McCarren's filly Edna Jackson, a full sister to Heliable, ran off with the first race, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, Futurity course. She opened at 4 to 1 and was played down to 5 to 2 second choice, after which she made all the pace and won in a drive by a length and a half in 101 3-5. James R. Keene's Ballotta, a filly by Voter-Ella T., neglected at 20 to 1, was second all the way, and beat Dave Gideon's Cinchona, 11 to 5 favorite, by three parts of a length.

J. W. Colt's Nitrate, the favorite in the steeplechase, burned up a fortune with a fall. The winner turned up in J. E. Widener's Knobhampton, a 40 to 1 shot, who came home under a drive half a length in front of Rube, 60 to 1. A length back Knight of Harlem, a good thing, secured third money. The time for the short course was 4'09. Two favorites and three second choices got the money for the form players. The attendance was close to 15,000. The summaries:

RECORD IN TEAM RACE. King Chimes and Gov. Holt Trot in 2:19 at Empire City Matince.

racing was set yesterday at the second matinee of the New York Driving Club, held at the Empire track. There was a long delay in getting away for the first heat, as L. A. Bur. e persisted in scoring West Wilkes, 2:13%, and El Moro, 2:13½, in advance. Finally at the word West Wilkes took a fit of the sulks, and it was only by the courtesy of Mr. Floyd-Jones that the Burke team escaped being distanced. Mr. Burke trailed in scoring for the second heat and waited until reaching the homestretch to make a determined effort. Then he closed on the leaders, and the crowded he closed on the leaders, and the crowded grand stand became the scene of much excitement. Each owner was driving with whip, rein and voice and half the occupants of the grand stand were shouting. King Chimes, 2:10%, and Gov. Holt finally won by a head only. The time, 2:19, is the fastest contested heat in an amateur team race.

Class A for trotters proved a grand contest, in which Princess Pique proved invincible. J. E. Meyers sent Swago, 2:18%, after the Princess in the first heat and was beaten a head in 2:15½, Invader, 2:10, one of the cracks of the Grand Circuit last year, was the contending factor in the second heat, but the Princess beat him easily. Class A for pacers was won by Star Pugh, 2:09½. Dr. Madara, 2:08, was unsteady when the pinch came in each heat. The opening event was marred by a misfortune to A. C. Schuyler's trotter Elmer. When rounding the second turn he had an attack of bleeding and had to be taken in hand and walked home. The summaries follow:

SCORCHING FOR BOOKMAKERS.

THOUSANDS PAID OUT ON FRANK A new trotting record for amateur team FARRELL'S HORSES.

Senator McCarren's Edna Jackson Also a Killer-Politics and Racing Do Not Mix-Attendance at the Bay Is Inereasing in Spite of the High Tariff. The bookmakers at Sheepshead Bay yesterday met a series of reverses, in spite of the defeat of four favorites, which made them go home feeling that not all the smart men in racing are confined to the use of the chalk and slate. Frank Farrell and his many friends, both in and out of politics, won thousands on the victories of Keator and Arklirta, both of whom were magnificently ridden by Willie Shaw. Farrell had heavy wagers on both horses and was warmly congratulated in the paddock after each success. Keator opened in some books at 2 to 1, but he was pounded down to even money. Al Stokes was standing behind Orlando Jones's book when the latter started

"Oh, let them have 8 to 5!" cried Stokes. who evidently did not believe that Kearer was of much account. A surging mob swept up, waving bills of all denominations, and when Jones had accepted one $00 wager he quickly rubbed to evens. Dave Johnson, Joe Cassidy, the Sullivans, Bob Rose, Tom Lloyd, Mark Riordan, the Lichtensteins, Charley Cash, Johnny Coleman, Kid Rogers, Joe Hayman and all of the clubbouse com-missioners londed the books with big Keater money, on whose success it was estimated that the layers paid out all of $75,000. 1.eo Mayer passed Keator up and split a good bet on Bedouin, place and show. Morris Stack took Israelite third. Tom Costigan took Ancestor and John Mullins, Race King.
Arklirta was the medium for another heavy quoted 8 to 1, but refused to take a dollar at that figure when the rush came. Most of the money was placed at the outset at 5 to 1, but the odds finally dropped to 9 to 5 while the horses were at the post. Farrell bet a bunch on the colt and his friends followed suit. Jesse Lewisohn, Joe Hayman, Counselor Lichtenstein, Dave Johnson, Eddie McDonald and others were also aboard of the good thing, the ring dropping all of $60,000 on the result. John E. Madden's Bellsnicker was also heavily backed in this race, Morris Hayman and Sol Lichtenstein being among those who bet on him. There was also considerable support for Nostromo, Sol Lichtenstein, for instance, preferring him to the others.

The ring was well scorched by the success of Senator McCarren's filly. Edna Jackson in the first race. She opened at fours and was

She opened at fours and was lowered quickly to twos, such operators as Counselor Lichtenstein, Joe Hayman, Newton Bennington, John Coleman, Dick Brown, Eddie McDonald, Dave Johnson, Harry Schaffer, Bud Meyer and a number of Tammany politicians betting on her heavily. Dave Gideon lost $2,000 on his colt Cinchona, who caught the wagers of Frank Tyler, Ben Epter, Henry Harris, Alex Shields, Jesse Lewisohn, Joe Beck, Sol Lichtenstein and Charley Cash.

Bill Cowen did not make book on the steeplechase which, by the way, was an anchor to windward for the layers, as the first two horses were practically unbacked, while Nitrate, the favorite, who fell, was the medium for a plunge in which the clubhouse and nearly all the prominent speculators took part. Alex Shields and Bill Porter were among those who helped to back Knight of Harflem down to threes.

It was a question in the ring whether Diamond Jim Brady bet on Oiseau in the Spindrift Handicap or not. The leading layers were on the lookout for his commission all through the speculation, but if it was sent in it was cloverly covered. Oiseau for that matter did not seem to appeal to the smart players, who showed a marked preference for Cairngorm. Porter, Beck, Boles, Shields, Paget, Dave Johnson and others bet large amounts on the Paget colt, while Lewisohn, Keime and the clubhouse took Oiseau. Gamara was played to show by Joe Yeager and Ike Thompson, with Billy Hayes and Costican taking Coy Maid third. Tom Trunkett picked up a good show bet on Sinister.

Orlando Jones, incidentally, had something of a wrangle with a well known player.

When Nitrate fell in the steeplechase there was a great how!
"Served them right for betting on a jumping race!" was the comment of a man who never takes a chance on such uncertain affairs. Gold Van also fell in this race, much to the disgust of his supporters, who had framed up what would have been a killing if he had succeeded.

The public appears to be getting educated to the $3 tariff. The attendance yesterday was far above the average, and it has been growing steadily. In the course of time it is believed that the racetracks will not feel the effect of cutting off the revenue from the books.

NEW YORK (A. L., 13; PHILADELPHIIA (A. L., 14.

Returning home yesterday from a successful crusade in Boston, the New Yorks played impressively against the formidable Philadelphias at American League Park and had victory well in hand all the way. Most of the games in the American League are won only atters hard and lasting fight, but the New Yorks were so much superior to their opponents yesterday that it was plain sailing for them. They were strong in all departments, and a good sized crowd saw them provide one of the fastest games they have played on the home grounds this season. There was a big contrast between their game and that of the visitors, who performed in medicore fashion and found the pace entirely too swift.

Chief Bender was done up brown by the New York bats, but was by no means to blame for all the New York counts. There were some expensive errors behind him, abelt the home hitters were there with the safeties when most needed. Elberfeld was back in the game and made his presence felt. He covered lots of ground in the field and did his share with the stick. Orth conducted the twirling end of the contest capably.

The Kow Yorks made a whirlwind start. Dougherty's infield hit. Keeler's sacrifice, Couroy's triple, Knight's bad throw in an effort to head off Williams, a wild pitch, Murphy's error attending Chase's contribution, Elberfeld's timely tap to left, a hit batsiann and orth's single made a busy first inning and meant five runs. Seybold's single, a base on balls to Murphy and two files to the outfield gave the Philadelphias arun in the steoned inning. They scored twice in the third on Lord's triple, Davis's single, a repeat by Cross, a base on balls and a nout.

The New Yorks scored once in the fourth on a homer to right by Keeler, and the visitors added a run in the flifth on Lord's base on balls and an action, and the property of the property of the property of the same of the property of the p

President Puillam returned to New York yesterday, having been away since the late unpleasantness at Boston and taking a swing around the Western half of the National League circuit. "Everything is moving along very nicely in the league at present," he said. H. Clay looks a bit thin, but says that is the result of travel and that his condition is good.

Jackson, the Yale pitcher, is considered big league timber by experts who have seen him perform but Yale men rarely go into the professional ranks, and Jackson is not likely to. Jackson was the strongest pitcher in the college ranks at the close of the season and did his best work in the most important games. In him was the real Yale stuff.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 11; BROOKLYN, 1. McGraw used thirteen men in the game with the Brooklyns at Washington Park yesterday, whereas the New Yorks won so easily that eight men probably could have done the trick. As the cat plays with the mouse, so the Champions played with the Brooklyns, and the frequent changes made in the New York team were not from demands of necessity. After McGann had earned his fodder by slapping the sphere for a triple and a home run, he retired to the stable, and Sammy Strang cavorted in his stead. Mathewson had everything in five innings that he pitched, holding the Brooklyns to two hits, and Elliott was just as effective, barring a temporary lapse into wildness in the ninth inning. Bowerman shook up Eason's pitching for a triple and Clarke, his successor, went him one better by joiting one of Deescher's offerings for a home run. Graham took Browne's place in the eight inning, but no chances came his way, so that his first experience as a major league player consisted of nothing but preparedness. Eleven Brooklyns disported themselves, but the changes in the home team were for forlorn hope reasons.

Brooklyn's fielding was mechanically good, but the tailenders were helpless at the bat. New York's game was sbady and strong, the strength being in evidence mostly at the bat and on the bases. The latter part of the game was only a frolic for the leaders. A tidal wave of hitting flowed over the field in the third inning, swamped the Brooklyns might drowned out any chance the Brooklyns might have had of winning. New York's first run, made in the second inning, was due to a base on balls to Dahlen, a bad throw by Eason to catch him napping and Gilbert's hit to left field.

Twelve Manhattan batters faced Eason in the third inning. Browne opened with a clip to right. Donlin sliced a single to center. Both preceded McGann to the platter, when the latter shot a screamer to the center field angle for a home run. A rattling good pick-up by Batch choked oil Mertes, but Dahlen singled and stole second base. Devlin flied to Malay, Gilbert walked and Bowerman tripled to the left field foul line, scoring Dahlen and Gilbert. Mathewson cut loose with the longest single on record and brought Bowerman home. Mathewson's hit went past Dobbs to the fence, the rebound confining it to a single. B and the frequent changes made in the New York team were not from demands of necessity. After McGann had earned his fodder by slap-
